the Convention may, we suppose be considered as engaged in the exalted vocation of President making, without regard to the rights of the South. They go into the ballot with a Squatter Sovereignty Piatform. On such a platform it is of little or no consequence to the South whom they nominate. Mr. Douglas is just as good as any Southern man when can be heamingted. In dued, he may be far better. A Southern man who will accept of a monastion or a platform dued, he may be far beller. A Southern man who will accept of a nomination on a platform opposed to the fights of the South, whether he believes in it or not, is totally unworthy of the support of the Costneysness. If he believes in it, then he is worse than Mr. Douglas, for in administering the Government, he will endeaver to conclinate the South. If he does not believe in the platform, then he is still less worthy of the support of the South.

ries, but is will desire principle and will compele we'ry party to put forward its best men, and to deal frankly with the preat American constituencies. The Administration and the fire catera arcsicolvedupon the destruction of Donglass. I hear of their denunciation already. There, is to be no quertes upos him, or upon as of his friends. He is to be offered up as a sacrifice, and they are to abunded out of public life. The fact is, no Northern man, who dares to differ from the Fro Slavey orders, can ever home to regain the Republicans, and make a the Federal compact a capital crima.

(From the Washington Star.) Tros on Washington Star!
The Washington Star, after alluding to the disorganization of the Democracy, says: "If there be a Yennedy for this state of Chings, it is in assembling at Baltimore or elsewhere an entirely new Convention, composed of delegates elected by all the different States, with the light of the proceedings of the Charleston Convention.

Why the Charleston Convention Ad-joinmed.

Special Dispatch to thu N. Y. Tribume.

Charlesses, Thursday, May 3, 180.

It is ascertained that most of the seeding delic gations are willing to take Guldrie if the is nominated by the regular Convention, though ent confusion, and his nomination is now strongly urged by Slidell and that interest as a basis of reconciliation.

The North-West still obstinately refuses to offer.

It is very doubtful if the East can be held through the day, except by nigonizappeals. The stability of the Douglas column yesterday furnished no proof of their purpose to stand unbroken. They were kept together by carnest bear ones that greatings were the control of the control of ished no proof of their purpose to stund univolven. They were kept together by carnest personsion, and assurances had accessions were certain, and that a result would be soon determined. Those assurances having failed, no boad of unity or cohesiveness is left.

Private accounts from neighboring States, fully justify the act of the seceding delegations, and censure those which have repained. Fabilic demonstrations have been made in various portions of the South, which must produce an effect on the Convention.

5:30 r. w.—The adjournment to day, though proposed to the Douglas leaders, as I telegraphed when the New York delegation voted for the two-thirds rule, was only accomplished by the efforts of Virginia and Tennessee, both of which States were embarrassed by the action of the seceding delegations, sad wanted an opportunity to consult their constituents. If they had refused, New York would have resisted an adjournment, and a noun-ation might have been made, notwithstanding the Douglas leaders bound their North Western followers by a pieder gainst any concession.

Patitically considered, this result is disastrous. bound their North Western Joliowers by a pienge sgainst any concession.

Politically considered, this result is disastrous to Mr. Bouglas. His managers intended, if they could have controlled, to have had four or five ballots to day, casting their full strength each time, but it was ascertaised be would fail below even the nominal majority which was reached before. Mr. Guthrie was rising near when the scene closed.

The Donglas men, finding this morning their candidate would be dropped by New York, and that Lane would get the nomination, came to the conclusion to have a sham battle, and to adjourn to Baitmore till the 18th of June.

The Donglas iseders found that, after the loss of New York, the Northwest would also drop fly degrees in favor of Lane, and they agreed to an adjournment to eave them from unterrout. By a masterly stroke the Southern men fix the day of holding their Contamtion at Richmond a few days before the Northern Convantion to the held at Baldimore. From the present time till then the Douglas fend will rage more flercely than ever.

whereas the Richmond Convention, whereas the Richmond Convention will be made to appear a national one, as New York and all the Northern States are invited to send delegations to it. If they make good nominations, the action of the Baltimore Convention in setting up other candidates would be regarded as factions.

Another element of discord remains to be bridged over, which was only prevented from making a new disruption by the timely adjournment of the Convention. We refer to the ultimatum of the Tennessee delogation, which was in the following words:

This was the very least thing that the "con-

> The House Committee on Territories have agreed upon bills for organizing five new Territories, which will iselande the entire unorganized region between the Mississippi Valley and the Pacific slope. Their names are to be Arizona. Nevela, Idahos, Dacotah and Chippewa. The first includes all that portion of territory obtained from Maxico east of the Colorado and its northeity affluent (Virgin river), and west of the 108th merician. He seesthers beundary will had the Mexicon border, and its northers the perallelof 38 deg. 30 min, separating it from Utah. Arizona will thus form a block nearly square, including most of New Maxico west of the Rocky Mountains, and containing nearly 200,000 Proposed New Territories.

Rocky Mountains, and containing nearly 200,000 square miles.

Nevada will comprise all that part of Utah west of the 11sth meridian, besides a small triangle between Virgin river and the California Sante Line, and a narrow strip of what was formerly Gracen Territory (new Washington) her

Green river. It will thus contain about 175,000 square miles, and include the new famous Washo mineral region.

Idahoa, signifying "Gem of the Mountaine," is the name proposed for the Pake's Paak territory. Its eastern boundary will be the 102d meritian; its western Green river; its seethers the 57th, and its scribers the 42d parallel of latitude. The Rocky Mountains will form a sort of back bone, passing nearly along its centre. Its extent will be about 160,000 square miles. By thus elipping the wings of Utah on both the cast and west sides, the latter will be left with scarcely one-fourth of its present extent. A narrow strip east of Green river will be added to Nebrasks.

Northern Democrata must feel highly complimented by the remarks of Mr. Burrows, of Arkansas, in the Charleston Convention, last Saturday. "He considered them worse than the kansas, in the Charleston Convention, last Satupday. "He considered them worse than the

Such is the dread of assasination by the Yankees, that it is almost impossible to tolk them from their quarters after nightfall. They retire early, pray for the nomination of Douglas, and their immediate delivery from so hot a climate. They try very hard to add like Southerners by eating rice and turnip safad, but invariably retire from the table with potatoes and a lump of salt in their pockets.

INVITATION TO NORTHERN DOUGHPACES We think that one of the most touching remarks which have been made to the northern delegates at Charlesten fell from the lips of Mr.

Avery when he was speaking in behalf of the strongest pro-slavery platform. He said:

We think that the rhetorician's art, "the ar of pursuasion," has seldom been so skillfully used. We should suppose that the stronges Douglas man, even if his face had been as Douglas man, even if his face had been as a flint, would be seen softening down to that delightful seem consistency which is so apily described by the classical term, "doughface."

The Circhnart Platform a Swindle.—We commend the following extact from a speech of Ayery, of North Caroline, in the Charleston Convention. It corroborates all that the Republicans have alledged concerning the Cincinnati

Platform:

He would say, never yield one inch upon the Abolition question, but meet it boldly, fairly, quariely. He asked them whether this issue was met boldly, fairly and squarely upon this popular sovereignty platform?

The Oncommit Platform is ambignous. We at the South say it means one thing—they at the Aorth say it means on thing—they at the Aorth say it means mother. We sak you now to estite its meaning. We say, take a bold standard and declars what it really means, boldly, openly and thereuphly. The minority say they are will imp to leave its interpretation to the Supreme Court. That is no convenience to the South. They take is for granted that all Democrats are law abiding citizens, and if so, when a decusion of the hupreme Court is made, adverse to their riews, they will submit to it as a matter of course. It is no solution of the question, no astitement of the issue astisfactorily to the South, to say "Leave it to the Courts."

Mr. Garnery.—Then, sir, there is shother reason. Look at the population that peep from our own States into the new States. It consists generally of the most energetic men in the community—men who are valuable at home, and valuable abread; but there is among them a large proportion and infusions of adsentives,—men who are valuables at home, and "home" means, who place no particular value on the hearthestone; men who have no conception of what the word "home" means, who place no particular value on the hearthestone; men who have no family, or who, if they have them, about this of mere properly. The Thirteenth Delegated General Confessor vened yesterday morning in St. James' Hall, in this city. We looked upon the impressve seems with awe and profound solamity. Feer years ago this body met at Indianapolis. Venerable ago this body met at Indianapolis. Veperable names then upon its roll are now stricken from the roll of time. Bishop Waugh, then the Senier Bishop, has gone to his reward, and either names, precious once on earth, are now not known here. Among the absent and dead is the noble Dr. Watson, whose life was a long struggle with death, and his death the entrance to eternal life. Bishop Morris, with care-worn look, took his place at the table, and called the Conference to order. The devotional exercises were interesting and solems, and left a hallowed impression on the minds of all who were present. Bishop Janes, Scott, Baker and Ames were present.

on motion of Dr. Carllon, the Secretaries of the last Conierence were requested to act as Secre-iaries until the Conference should be organized. Dr. Harris, the Secretary of the last Confer-ence, called the roll of the Conference in alpha-betical order, and oradentials were presented. Rov. Alfred Brunaga presented a kind of proless against the action of the Wisconsin Conferunce in electing their delegates. He disclaimed that anybody else knew much more than he;

but the paper was referred to a committee, who

The audience room is very large and well adapted to the use for which it was intended. Monstern Bloodin is performing at night; we perform in the day time. Some of the delegates dislike the piace, but we see no reason for the prajudice. We mould just as soon preach in a theatre as anywhere class if we were going to preach to almers. We could hardly full to find them there, and we have no fears of corrupting religion by bringing it in contact with any other system.

"Upper Egypt," April 26, 1868.
[Correspondence of the Press and Tribuse.] Having some business in this part of Egypt, I thought I would advise your readers in re-gard to the "irrepressible conflict" now going on in this "land of darkness."

In 1856 Fremont received just When votes in this township or precinct. About two months since a "Republican Club" was formed here, a Republicans resolved to make a clean party is-sue of it, and nominate a clean Republican tick-et. The "sham Democracy" ridiculed this first attempt of the Republicans to set up for them-selves, but the result showed what a few resolate, determined mer can do when "contend-ing for the right;" the Republicans elected their whole ticket by four majority, in a poll of about one hundred and fifty votes : verily the light is breaking, and there is "corn in Egypt."

The desire among many of the Republicans of Bloomington is to attend the great Lose Fossi on the 18th, and will do so if our Railroads will isane tickets at half fare.

I am confident it will be to the interest of the Companies to do so. I think I donot exaggerate when I say there will be ten attend the Conven-tion at half fare where one will do so at regular

A short time since considerable excitement was manifested at the raising of an entire block of brick houses in Chicago, by means of jack universal samiration. Workings are now en-gaged in this city performing an equally deli-cate operation—that of lowering a large thirty inch Croton water pipe, running through Eighth avenue, to a depth of ten feet below its present position. This is rendered necessary in conseposition. This is rendered necessary in consequence of the re-grading of the avenue. When it is borie in mind that the pipe is of iron, the joints or connections made with lead, and the pipe filled with water, the flow of which cannot be interrupted, it will be seen how carefully the

The Burlington Hawkeys says that two men, one of whom was an Englishman, became excited on Saturday evening, over the new areceived concerning the last international Price Fight, and a discussion arose as to the merits of the contestants which finally resulted in a regular pitched battle, in which the Englishman was worsted and rather severely handled. No arrest was made.

Wide-Awakes.

(Prou th New York Tribune.)

One peculiar feature in the Connecticut campaign was the formation of "Wide-Awake"

Clubs. These Clubs are composed of young men who, while holding themselves ready for any duty during the day, are organized more particularly for escort and toreh-light duly in the evening, at meetings and in processions. As such Clubs will be organized very extensively during the approaching Presidential campaign, and as all information about the Connecticut companies will be valuable to those necticut companies will be valuable to those who propose to establish other companies, we propose to give a description of the dress and drill of the Harsford Wide-Awakes.

to the motion of the carrier, are always upres. The sticks are about five feet long and an it and a half it dismeter. The officers of Company wear glazed hast instead of caps, a instead of torches they carry colored laster—the c ptain a red lantern and the lieutena green or bine. Whole cost of uniform and to elicits the warmest admiration from all who as them; and their obedience to the word of con mand and their strict discipline render them of great service in escort duty, and in their attended them; and their obedience to the word of command and their strict disciplior render them of great service in escort duty, and in their attendendance upon out-of-door meetings. The raise of marching are as strictly enforced with the wide-Awakes as in the 7th Regiment; and oight smoking, talking, leaving the ranks, and other irregularities, are no more allowed in the one than in the other corps.

The organization is extremely popular in Hartford. The young non and older ones are also enrolling themselves as members, and at their last parade they turned out over 400 atrong. The Waterbury Company have improved upon the Hartford Company in their uniform. They have their capses trimmed with a facing of white of the enameled cloth, and gives the dide to the enameled cloth, and gives the dide to the enameled cloth, and gives the trees a lighter and more military appearance. Their torches also are got up in a listle better style.

The origin of the Wide-Awakes, as nearly as we can trace it, is this: In the torch-light procession with escot ted Cassius M. Clay to his quarters, after his speech in Hartford, on the evening of February 57th, and which marched through the streets after that duty, were two young men, named D. G. Francis and H. P. Blair, who were black cambric capes to protect themselves from the cit which experience had taught them would occasionally drip from the torches. Mr. G. P. Bissell, the marshal of the procession, noticed the uniform, gand complimented them upon it, and at the suggestion of Mr. H. C. Beckwith, he had them put at the head of the procession, and gave one of them a fine awinging torch which he (Mr. Bissell) had made for his own use. It was the subject of a very general remark that the capes were a grand idea, and the next day it was proposed among the young men to get up a company of fifty, and to adopt as a minform, glased capes and caps, and to carry torches like the new mode for Mr. Bissell, Mr. S. B. Ives and Mr. H. P. Hitcheeck took active steps, and an eacting was called. This meet he roomed Mr. Allee Frances, over the City Bank, a company was organized, and J. S., Chalker, Esq., was chosen captain. Six lieutenants were also chosen. The name Wide Awake was suggested by a paragraph in the Dosly Courant of March. 3, written by the assistant editor, Mr. Wm. P. Fuller. It was proposed to the company by Mr. H. P. Hitchbock, and at once adopted as just the name of all others.

After the organization the ranks filled upganidity and when on the 16th of March thes.

account of what this company has done during the eampaign. We can only state in brief that they drove off a crowd of rowdies who were determised to break up a mass meeting in Waterbury; they have protected meetings, those who had recently left the Loco-Foco party.

The second company was formed at Waterbury, and then New-Britain, New Haren, and other towns quickly followed. The Shams are terribly annayed by, this Wide-Awake movement. Their papers try in every way to throw ridicule upon them by calling them "infast politicians," &c. The Hartford Times, just before election, was filled with abuse and rile slanders shout the company, and it was evident, from the bitterness of that wor movement was earrying consternation into the ranks of the Seymour men. They could endure anything and everything which the enthusiasm of the Republicans prompted them to do except the getting up of the Wide-Awakes. That form of enthusiasm, drawing in as it did very many of their young nen, was absolutely agenting to them, and they exclaimed, "Take any abape but that!"

Not out of the wo

credited to a military company which had bee pareding early in the morning. But anothe dispatch has just arrived similar to the first and as the mail closes Douglas stock is up again. The truth is, we have no direct means of communication with Charleston which is not communication with Charleston which is not communication.

Patal Result of the Research and Sayers Excitement.

The New Orleans Delies away: Last Saturday night, between 10 and 11 6'clock, a dispute strose between two men named Daniel Cunningham and James Weyman, about the great mill serous the water. Cunningham appeared to be a Sayers man, and Weyman a Heenan man, and during the discussion, which took place at the grocery of James Gook, corner of Annunciation and St. Thomas streets, Weyman called Cunningham a liar; Cunningham hauled off to strike him, when Weyman jumped beek, and pulling out a pistol, presented it at Canningham and fired. The ball took effect, and Cunningham died soon afterward. Weyman made good his senape through the crowd which gathered around. Cunningham is what is known as a "buffer," and shout two years age engaged in a price fight for $250 a side, with a man samed Hoolihan. The fight came of in Jefferson Gity, and lasted two hours and a half, Cunningham, though a smaller man, winning the fight. Weyman is a cooper by trade, but does not beer a good reputation, having been arrested by officer Surroughs, in company with a man named Costello, charged with highway robbery. Weyman was shot by Burrougha in the arm.

The Toledo-Betroit Seduction Case.

Of this case, the Toledo Revald, of Thursday, has the following:

Occurrences which are coming to light almost hourly, relieve the matter of its worst festures, and the best information in relation thereto, affirm that the transactions developed are but the result of a well laid plan (known to those who should have guided ber feet in virtue's path,) to bring about a divorce and consequent union of the parties who seemed inclined to live but for each other only.
